THORR'S – Pikul

Handwoven Natural Sedge Surface with Traditional Pikul Pattern

A Heritage Weave That Brings Timeless Thai Craftsmanship into Contemporary Interiors

THORR'S – Pikul is a decorative surface crafted from handwoven natural sedge, featuring the “Pikul” pattern—one of Thailand's distinguished traditional textile motifs. Inspired by the delicate form of the Pikul flower, the pattern transforms natural beauty into refined geometric detailing with elegant rhythm and balance.

The uniqueness of this design lies in the traditional Yok-Kee weaving technique, an intricate process that creates a raised, dimensional surface with distinctive depth and texture while showcasing the precision and craftsmanship passed down through generations.

Today, only a limited number of artisans continue to preserve and create this exceptional pattern. Each piece therefore represents more than a surface material—it is a contemporary expression of Thai artisanal heritage, bringing warmth, character, and cultural craftsmanship into interior spaces.
